

Biography

Ms. Neha Bagaria
Founder,
JobsForHer,
Karnataka.

Neha Bagaria is the Founder & CEO of JobsForHer, an online portal to enable women to start, restart and rise in their careers by connecting them with jobs, reskilling, mentors, community and inspiration.

After graduating from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, Neha founded her first company Paragon, to bring the Advanced Placement program to Indian high-school students. When marriage brought her to Bangalore, she started working with Kemwell, a contract pharmaceutical manufacturing company, in the fields of HR, Finance and Marketing Strategy. Neha took a 3.6-year break in her own career when she had her children. During this personal journey, she became aware of the various difficulties a woman faces in order to re-enter the workforce. She then became committed to the cause of enabling women to achieve their potential and founded JobsForHer.com on International Women's Day, 2015.

Neha has been featured in the Forbes India's list of "25 Women Trailblazers" who are shattering stereotypes and in "19 Changemakers to Watch Out For in 2019" by Deccan Herald.

Neha is an entrepreneur at heart, a mother to two boys, an avid reader, a closet dancer and a travel enthusiast.
